Todos Santos, Baja California Sur

Global Citizenship

Mexico

This two-week summer short course at CSU's International Center in Todos Santos uses service and experiential learning to cultivate confident and conscientious global ambassadors. Engage with the local population through volunteer work, communal meals, community forums and more. Students will also study globalization firsthand through class activities, field trips, and hands-on experience with local NGOs.

Program Overview

This CSU faculty-led program will introduce students to the methods, aims, and challenges of international development. It serves the Todos Santos community through engagement and dialogue in areas of expressed need. This experience will position students to make a genuine and positive impression in the community. The program is non-credit or a one-credit independent study option.

Location

Todos Santos is located in beautiful Baja California Sur, an hour north of Cabo San Lucas on the Pacific. Students will enjoy this quiet town, just a mile from beaches. They will have the opportunity to learn about the history of the region as well as current political and social dynamics which benefit and challenge the region.

Housing and Meals

Participants will stay at CSU's Todos International Santos Center. Breakfast and lunch will be served at the center, but participants will eat dinner in town on their own.
