The Global Studies Minor is an interdisciplinary program designed to help students understand and appreciate diverse cultures and peoples. It includes courses that emphasize international and global history, politics, languages and cultures, economics, and environmental issues. This program provides critical cultural context for students pursuing any major or course of study and is available to both resident and distance learners.

For more information or to add a minor in Global Studies, contact Dr. White at Allison.White2@colostate.edu or visit inst.colostate.edu.
