The Global Studies Minor is an interdisciplinary program designed to help students understand and appreciate diverse cultures and peoples. It includes courses that emphasize international and global history, politics, languages and cultures, economics, and environmental issues. This program provides critical cultural context for students pursuing any major or course of study and is available to both resident and distance learners.

For more information or to add a minor in Global Studies, contact Dr. Todd at meagan.todd@colostate.edu or visit inst.colostate.edu.
Interdisciplinary Minor in Global Studies
Check Sheet

12 or more upper-division (300-400 level) credits required; Minor not available for International Studies Majors Revised: Spring 2021

Name: ____________________________ CSU ID: ____________________________ Advisor: ____________________________ Date: ____________

INST 200: Interdisciplinary Approaches to Globalization
INST 301: International Studies Research Methods

Select one course from the following: ANTH 200, GR 100.

Select a minimum of 12 credits from the three categories listed below, including at least one course from each category. At least 9 credits must be upper-division (300-to 400-level).

___History, Politics, and Society___

___Languages and Cultures___

___Economy and Environment___
NRRT 320, NRRT 400, POLS 332/ECON 332, POLS 362, POLS 442, SOC 220, SOC 320, SOC 322, SOC 323, SOC 364, SOC 461.

*Course has a prerequisite/or restriction
*Course is offered online
(When the courses are typically offered: FA=Fall, SP=Spring, SU=Summer)
* Or substitution approved by advisor